

Ledsham, Picturesque Village with Beautiful views

Ledsham is a picturesque village in the middle of the country side. Its honey coloured houses and blooming apple trees will take your breath away.

In the countryside

Ledsham is the perfect holiday destination for a family, with beautiful walks woodland areas and streams surrounding it, it is truly a beautiful place,

Food requirements

Ledsham is known for its many pubs, 6 in total all perfect for a family meal and dog friendly. Although there aren't any supermarkets, there are two butchers a baker, corner shop and a grocery store from which you may buy all the necessary requirements

Days out in Ledsham

Ledsham also has a great hairdressers called Style and Elegance. The cafe and the library would make a lovely day out and should you be interested at all in history, a trip to the bronze age settlement just on the outskirts of the village may prove to be equally as interesting or you,

Style and Elegance,

Hairdressers

011 375 4327

Safety in Ledsham

Although Ledsham is a quite village in the middle of nowhere it doesn't mean you can't get help when you need it Ledsham has a police station, fire station and a chemist and doctors surgery that will all keep Ledsham a safe place to live.

Ledsham church.

Like most small villages, Ledsham has its own village church and grave yard in which are held family services, Sunday services and choir meetings and practices for you to enjoy, if you happen to be going in the right season there will of course be Christmas, Christingle and Easter services.

So, are you going to visit Ledsham or are you going to waste the waste the opportunity

It's beautiful, picturesque, family and dog friendly, the perfect place for long walks and the perfect family country getaway.

So visit
Ledsham
Today!